J.R. Livingston

February 17, 1946 - July 18, 2013

Memorial services were held for J.R. “Butch” Livingston, 67, of Roswell at 11 am Monday, July 22, 2013 at Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home Chapel. He passed away on Thursday, July 18, 2013.

J.R. “Butch” Livingston was born February 17, 1946 in Montgomery, Alabama, to Thomas E. Livingston and Anna Frances Romeo Livingston who preceded him in death.

He loved his family dearly. He was a very hard working cowboy all his life, and loved working with livestock. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

J.R. “Butch” is survived by his children; Jerry Harris of Carlsbad, NM; Scarlett Patterson of Artesia, NM; Dusty Livingston of Capitan, NM and Ross Livingston of Albuquerque, NM; his brother, T.E. “Pete” Livingston; and six grandchildren.
He was preceded in death by his two sons; Bruce Harris and Cody Livingston.

Tribute Wall

J.R. Livingston

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

PF

1 file added to the album New Album Name

Priscilla Freeman - July 14, 2017 at 01:44 PM

PF

If asked, Butch Livingston would want to be remembered as a top hand and cowpuncher delux. You would have to ask because he was also a humble man. If more people were half as kind as this good man was to others, it would be a better world. We were blessed that Butch shared his life us for the past 14years. We raised a grand-daughter together and I will be thankful the rest of my days to have partnered up with this old cowboy.

P Freeman - August 26, 2014 at 11:41 AM

PF

1 file added to the album New Album Name

P Freeman - August 26, 2014 at 11:32 AM

MC

B..B..B..B..Butch will be remembered as one of the most respectful men I have ever met. I'm not sayin he couldn't be one of the oneryest ones out there, but always respectful. He was a great friend to my parents and when I lived in Ruidoso several years ago, I worked at Circle K, and he would come in every morning and give me a big hug and he was always in a great mood. I have heard stories that he was one of the best dancers in the valley and the women loved him! The world needs a few more cowboys like him, that is for sure. I had the pleasure of seeing him a few times over the past six months and his sense of humor was always top notch! He sure was a grand storyteller. I would see him at the Races in Ruidoso and holler out.... B..B..B..Butch and he would come over with a big hug and a kiss and always asked about my parents. He will be missed and definitely never forgotten! He was one of a kind and it was a pleasure to know him. My condolences to his family. Sincerely, Michelle Carter and The Carter Family

Michelle Carter - August 06, 2013 at 07:30 PM

CW

My condolences to the family of "Butch" We all shared some good times back in the days. I just saw him after the last hospital dis charge and couldn't believed he recognized me, when little Jim took me to the truck to see him. I'm sure he will be missed by all who knew him, but never forgotten. My love and prayers to all the children.
Sincerely, Cheryl Wafful

Cheryl Wafful - July 31, 2013 at 04:58 PM

CD

To the Livingston family, My thought and prayers go out to you all during this time. Know that friends and family are here with you all.
Love always
Charlene Daniel Shaffer

charlene daniel - July 23, 2013 at 06:30 PM

PF

If asked, Butch Livingston would want to be remembered as a top hand and cowpuncher delux. You would have to ask because he was also a humble man. If more people were half as kind as this good man was it would be a better world.

P Freeman - August 26, 2014 at 11:38 AM