“ Hey Chris,

I know I'm supposed to share a fond memory I have of you, but how can I choose just one when we've had so many years fool of them. Was it the time you were trying to curl my hair for church when I was little and giving you such a hard time, was it swimming in the back yard during the summer. It could have been the Christmas you gave me my first Care Bear with matching socks. Maybe it was the times we would wait for grandma and grandpa to leave and spray furniture polish on our socks and slide across the kitchen floor. It could have been the times we drove back and forth between Capitan and Roswell in my old truck with the music blasting and talking about everything and nothing all at the same time. It could of been the pure happiness I felt of getting to spend your first trip to New York with you and visiting your birth place. Just being a part of that made me so happy because all of our lives we talked about how Bradley we wanted to go. How do I pick just one? I'm coming to see you tomorrow, and I know I'm supposed to be ready to say goodbye,, but I'm nowhere near ready to say goodbye and let you go. All I can promise is I will try my best.

“ Chris was such a warm hearted person I am friends with his son CJ, he was a fun loving individual who had a passion for making everyone laugh and smile. Hardly getting mad and always enjoying the finer things in life such as his family. Such an amazing character that will be missed

You Meant So Much

You meant so much to all of us
You were special and that's no lie
You brightened up the darkest day
And the cloudiest sky

Your smile alone warmed hearts
Your laugh was like music to hear
I would give absolutely anything
To have you well and standing near

Not a second passes
When you' not on our minds
Your love we will never forget
The hurt will ease in time

Many tears I have all poured out like rain
I know that you are happy now
And no longer in pain

RIP Chris
You will always be in out heart
And always on our minds
Fly high with the Angels
