The Broken Chain

“We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Are family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God Call us one by one the chain link again.

“ Condolences to Donzell's Family and Children.
I knew young Donzell from Military Heights I was two grades ahead of him but he liked playing sports with everyone. I lived around the corner from him when he lived at the Coronado Apartments. We would trade SNES games for a week and play squash during recess. Those were simpler and more innocent times. I lost touch with him after I finished sixth grade but I remember him and his family when I was a kid. Gone too Soon. Rest In Peace

“ I really to this day do not remember how we started hanging out all i know is we were inseparable for a good minute. I remember how you use to catch the bus with me to work everyday when i worked for my cousin Mechelle Dupree (RIP) you use to help me clean up her house, cook, and run errands. You would stay with me all day and be right there catching the bus back home with me at night. You use to help me with my home work when i attented ENMU-R. You even walked me to school a few times and once or twice out of those few times you talked me into playing hooky as soon as we hit campus. Lol You understood me and i understood you we expressed how we felt through the music we listened to. Sometimes we didnt even have to say a word just by the song we played we already knew what each others mood was like. I going to miss the cracking jokes with each other, the laughs, the talks, the late night walks to the store, listening to our favorite rapper future, im going to miss our fights lol our all night talks about everything, and most of all im going to miss my friend who seemed to in a blink of an eye became my family. I love you Donzell aka Durty you will forever be missed and loved

“ I remember when he was a baby he always had a smile on his face I still have a pic of him in Kenya 's arms we all were pregnant at the same time but had our son's months apart. Me then Lenya had Omar and Kenya had Donnie 1988 was a good year with one of God's best gifts a mother could ask for healthy happy son's with bright futures ahead of them. I am saddened his light was cut short at the height of what he could still accompl in life greatness takes time. God bless you Warner family may he shine on you all and give you peace and comfort. Always Love
