“ My mother inlaw Rosalee always spoke her mind she was a small ball of fire but would help anyone in need She would make me laugh and said don't worry about what anyone would say just worry about yourself and your family. We had a lot of laughing moments and alot of crying moments. When my son was little he would tell her grandma Rose my mom and dad never buy me burritos and when we would get home from work she would say I took Johnny and the girls for burritos because Johnny said you all never bought him burritos LOL. She was so funny. She made the best tortillas and chili. We are going to miss you Rose may you RIP We love you.
