To the Castrillo family, I am so sorry to hear about your father and grandfather. Even though I did not know him I knew most of the family. I have been praying for the whole family since I read his obituary on Sunday. I have been praying daily that all of you will feel God presence and his love to give you all peace, love, faith, and strength. I strongly believe he is in heaven with his wife and rejoicing. He will be praying for all of you from heaven and keeping an eye until you all will be reunited when God calls you all home. God bless and God be with all of you always.
