“ I met Albert as an employee at NMMI. He was a very patient and kind man who dedicated many years of service to NMMI. After he retired I would see him from time to time in Wal-Mart sitting on a bench patiently waiting for his wife to complete her shopping. He always greeted me with a smile and a hug. He was a true example of a humble servant of God. May he rest in peace and may the family receive comfort from their memories with him.
