

Albino Coronado

October 11, 1937 - August 2, 2007

Lovingly known as “Frog” to his friends and family A rosary will be recited for Albino A. Coronado, 69, of Roswell at 7 pm Monday, August 6, 2007, at St. Peter’s Catholic Church. A funeral mass will be celebrated at 10 am Tuesday, August 7, 2007, at St. Peter’s with Father Paul Juniet O.F.M. officiating. Burial will follow in South Park Cemetery. Albino passed away Thursday, August 2, 2007, at his home surrounded by the love of his family. Albino was born in Fort Sumner on October 11, 1937 to Andres Garcia Coronado and Gertrudes Lopez Coronado. He served his country with the National Guard from 1956 to 1959. Albino and Floyde Aragon were married June 28, 1958 in Fort Sumner; she survives him at the family home. Albino was a catholic and a member of St. Peter’s Catholic Church. “Frog” retired in December 2003, from the New Mexico State Highway Department after thirty-one years of service, he worked part time for Rainbow Bread, and in the pet department at Wal-Mart. Albino was a wonderful loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather who was greatly loved and will be greatly missed. In addition to his wife, Floyde, Albino is survived by his children, Gloria Coronado of Albuquerque, Rick Coronado and his wife, Pat, of Roswell and Angela Torres and her husband, Lupe, of Roswell; a sister, Molly Coronado of Clovis; grandsons, Victor Mendoza and Timothy Torres of Roswell; and Michael DeSantiago of Albuquerque, granddaughters, Stephanie DeSantiago, Jennifer Torres, and Camille Coronado, all of Roswell; great-grandsons, Christopher Torres and Xavier Gonzales; great-granddaughters, Tiffany Sisneros and Anissa Munoz; his favorite sister-in-law, Christina Portillo; nephew, Robert Torres; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of friends. Albino was preceded in death by his parents, Andres and Gertrude Coronado, and a great-granddaughter, Azariah Gonzales. Pallbearers will be Victor Mendoza, Michael DeSantiago, Robert Coronado, Matthew Guajaca, Timothy Torres, Beto Portillo, Fred Trujillo, and Lupe Torres. The family will receive family and friends at 58 G Street - RIAC in Roswell. Please access the online register book at andersonbethany.com to share your thoughts and memories with the family. Services are under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.

Tribute Wall

“ Albino Coronado

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ Words cannot express how sorry we are for the loss of Albino. We know that this is a difficult time right now, just know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. He came to see our Mom, Della Montoya Sena, when she was ill and before she died and it meant alot to her and us as she was very family oriented and always told us to remember our roots. May God bless you with lots of fun and loving memories of your time with him when you're feeling your worst. sincerely, The Jim Sena Family Jim, Gene, Sylvia, Carla, James, Eddie and Francee and families

Sylvia Sena Saiz - August 16, 2007 at 06:25 PM

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to you and your family during your loss. Sorry we couldnt make it. We Love You, Romana Lucero & Family

Romana Lucero - August 07, 2007 at 02:42 PM

“ ILL MISS YOU GRANDPA AND YOU'LL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART!!!!R.I.P GRANDPA ALBINO CORONADO!!!!!!!

Tiffani Sisneros - August 05, 2007 at 11:53 AM