“You Never Said Goodbye”

You never said I'm leaving

You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it

And only God knows why.

In life, I loved you completely

In death, I love you still.

In my heart, I hold a place

That only you can fill.

It broke my heart to lose you

But I know you're not alone.

A part of me left with you

On the day God called you home.

*The moment that you left me
My heart split in two
One side filled with memories
The other side died with you
I often lay awake at night
When the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane
With tears upon my cheek
Remembering you is easy
I do it everyday
But missing you is a heartache
That never goes away
I hold you tightly within my heart
And there you will remain
As my life goes on without you
But will never be the same.*

*If i could change the past . . .
i would die in place of you😭*

*i remember when you took this last October.
i've been remembering you a lot lately.
It suppose to snow on the 3rd month since you went to be with mom.
So we went to to leave you Valentines early and a prayer too. It will never be enough . . .
i watched a show and it said: "when you die, you are quickly forgotten except by a certain few ".
i was starting to believe this, when out of the blue a young lady from Toyota saw some flowers and thought of you. Also someone from your church (Grace) came by to see how the family was doing and brought over some food.
i will remember you when i see the snow, i will remember you when it rains, but mostly when the sun comes shining through. i will see you when the roses bloom and in every hiking trail but mostly in your beautiful daughter that reminds me so much of you.
If there is a lesson from your leaving early in Life . . . It must be " have a big heart and Love a lot ".
Happy Valentine's Day Hondo*

Every question I can think of and the only one I really want answered is if you had the chance to do it all over again...would you? Stuff no one can understand but you and me. My uncle, best friend, older brother, dj fuego you've helped shape who I am and I will forever cherish the time we did have together. And though the universe had other plans for you I'll see you again soon. Goodnight never goodbye🕊️😞

“ Hondo I wish today wasn't happening. I wish you were here laughing with us, joking about literally everything. I wish you were pulling up in your car to grandmas house to come see everyone after work. I wish we were singing in your car having no care in the world. Bohemian Rhapsody came on yesterday and all I could think about was how we would perform every part of that song. Playing basketball will never be the same for me because you're not here to push me around to make me tougher. You are my best friend and I always wanted to be by you and be like you growing up. When you, bud, and joe would hangout I always felt like I needed to be apart of the boys haha. And this year has been a rollercoaster. And this has been the hardest thing that I never thought would happen. You had so much life left and it makes me sad that you won't be able to do what you were planning on doing. As I sat at home watching your rosary, all I thought about was all the fun times we had, from playing football and basketball in the street, to riding our bikes all over town, to all the crazy things we done when we got older. No matter what we were going through in life you always made me laugh, you always had a smile on your face. I am gonna miss the best brother I ever had!! I will miss you always, thank you for treating my kids like you were their uncle, you made them laugh and made them happy with the time they had with you!! “ I want to give my deepest condolences to the Baca family. Marybell, you raised one amazing, honest, and very respectful young man. I've known Alex for years and there is not one time when we have seen each other and not said hello or ask how one another is doing and how each other's families are doing. I will definitely miss him telling me random jokes and that Big smile he always had. Rest in Peace my friend💙 Many prayers for comfort and strength for your family🙏
With Love, Nicole

“ TO SCARLETT:

I am so sorry that you are having to live through this, baby girl. My heart is heavy thinking about you right now. If there's one thing that anyone could say about your dad without a shadow of a doubt, its that he was an amazing father. Nothing in this world meant more to him than his little girl. I will forever remember all the fun times we all had, nerf gun wars, playing in my backyard, and all the nights of laughter and good times. Don't ever let yourself forget that he's never truly gone. He lives within you and all around you and will be watching you grow up forever now. Know that you are loved and that we are thinking of you right now.

TO THE REST OF THE BACA FAMILY:

I cannot begin to even tell you how sorry I am for your loss. Family was everything to Alex and he never let anyone forget that. So many stories I got to hear about all of you, especially his niece. He spoke often about how beautiful and smart she is and how proud he was of her. I hope that through all of this, you get to hear from all of the countless people that Alex impacted and, though im sure you already know this, how many people loved him.

TO ALEX:

I don't care how long its been since I last got to speak to you. I wish I could tell you what an amazing friend you were. When I was down and lost, going through a tough emotional time, you were there. You let me cry on your shoulder, you were the voice of reason lifting me up even when things were grim. I know that I was only able to get through my divorce with my sanity because I had you to talk to. I cant stop thinking of "porch time" and all the countless nights we sat together out there, for hours, talking about anything and everything. You were a genuinely good person and I know I will think of you and miss you forever. People like you are unique and precious, we have to cherish the time that we did get with you. I do cherish it, Alex. And ill miss you forever.

With love,
