Asleep like the Rock
The good times were not today
Maybe when my thoughts were sealed in a bottle
When I was the unfortunate example of a crowd that understands the beauty Asleep like the muted
They are leaving, yet I have more to Say
I don't want to be found falling short of the attention It's not my fault I'm on my way to see my surroundings Invade the clouds and see the days burn and fall Asleep like the creativity Discovering the silence in the three sided box I know, I know I'm resting in the right place After all, I still have respect for the sad

“ Alfredo is one of the most interesting people I have ever known. Any person that met him even once could never forget who he was. He was just that kind of guy.

Here in Arkansas, we would all get excited when we heard "Fredo's comin." People would plan parties, and there always seemed to be a crowd awaiting his arrival. He was very well-liked around here.

I am a better person for having known Fredo, and I will always treasure the memories of the times I spent with him.
