“ So many years together and now your gone it's hard to imagine you no longer being here. The laughter the times we traveled with our children and grand children's was the best of times. watching movies eating popcorn while the snow was coming down running in the rain trying to get in the car we would race to see who was first. Lots of fun times as well as sad. But we made it I will really miss you ! Love you forever to the moon and back

“ Allen was my uncle by marriage. He has been married to my aunt almost 50 years. He was an old hippie who loved his music and his family. He is a Vietnam veteran who served his country proudly despite the horrific conditions that they were all exposed to...which eventually led to his death. He will be missed greatly!

“ I'm having a hard time writing this because I never thought this day would actually come. You were a father to me and pushed me when I needed it most. You shaped a large part of who I am and without you I wouldn't have strived for a better life. I've always wanted to make you proud and it's a drive I'll carry with me forever. I know I'll have a piece of you with me where ever I go now and I promise to live my life fully and honor you in the process. I promise to start playing my guitar again, try to find time for a weekend yard sale and never pass up a good hotel breakfast. I hope you can sit with me while I drink my coffee early in the mornings and I hope to take you with me on all my adventures. I love you more than I can express and will miss you everyday. I'm working on finding my faith again and learning to trust God through this all. I just hope to be with you again someday.

I love you Grandpa, thank you for everything.

Ana I'm so truly sorry for y'all's loss. I wish none of you had to experience this pain. He loved all of you so much. I seen a lot of him in you in his quiet reserved nature always standing back looking over all of you quietly. Now we must know he is not in any pain and be thankful of that. May God be with each of you and comfort each of you . With love Amber, Aubrey, and Joshua
