

Angela Gonzales

October 12, 1981 - April 15, 2017

Angela Ann Licon-Gonzales has gone home to be with her Father in Heaven after a fierce battle with pulmonary hypertension. Angela passed away on the morning of April 15th 2017. Angela was born to Mary Licon and Jesus Montelongo on October 12th 1981 in Roswell N.M. This obituary could never truly tell Angela's story and what she meant to those who knew and loved her. Angela loved to sing and had a voice like an angel. She was a tiny person but had the biggest heart and spirit. Her voice was loud and bold, she had a commanding voice. When she spoke, people listened. She spoke with eloquence and authority. Angela enjoyed writing poetry of this life's struggles and its beauty. She enjoyed making flower arrangements for family and friends. Angela loved to attend church and served at Church On The Move in the bus ministry and a greeter at a very young age. She loved Brother Nathaniel Haymes, he was a mentor, teacher and father to her. Together they ministered to troubled youth at the Hope Center where Brother Haymes taught her and many other youth to box. Angela was the most generous person, she would open her home to anyone in need and helped many that were homeless and in need of a friend. She loved Thanksgiving, she just absolutely loved to be with family and friends over a good meal. Angela loved reading and sharing the Bible with friends, family and even complete strangers. Angela had four children that she adored and loved with great passion. She was so much fun to be around and had a great sense of humor. Angela had such a big, fierce spirit, she lived life big. Other than her children, family and friends the most important thing to her was the relationship she had with God. She had an intimate, personal, relationship with God and she shared that with everyone she came in contact with. She was a mother, daughter, little sister, niece but beyond that a warrior for Christ. Throughout her life, in her best times and in her worst times she constantly confessed Jesus as Lord over her life. She always shared the message of salvation and the undying love that Christ has for us all. Angela's message to world was to love God, people and nothing else. She would say this.....

"We are all a mess, I'm imperfect, I have made some good choices and some really bad ones. I am not worthy, holy, nor righteous and I am certainly not deserving of the great love and mercy God has bestowed upon me. I don't deserve what Jesus did for me, when He laid down his life so that I could be free from the penalty of my sins....truth is none of us do. But this I know, embrace, and accept, God measures your heart. He knows the truth of our hearts and his kindness and mercy no one can measure. I am not special, what makes me worth anything is the love God has for me and that he lives in me. I know and love God with every ounce of my existence. No matter what you are or what you have done, God can and will reach you. He loves all of us no matter what our lives have been. I leave you with this, seek your salvation that only Jesus Christ can offer and have personal relationship with God. Do not die the permanent death, Hell is the complete absence of God. Please seek your salvation through Jesus Christ and live an eternal life." Little sister there was no one like you and there never will be again. One of a kind is what you will always be. There will come a day, not today, maybe not tomorrow but there will come a day, when life, its circumstances, its consequences, nor death will be able to separate us from God nor one another. I know I will see you again and live with you in our eternal home in heaven. Soon, not yet, but soon.

Angela has four beautiful children who survive her, Son Isaiah Gonzales, Daughter Uriah Gonzales, Daughter Kyla Gonzales, and Daughter Juanita Aguilar. She is survived by her grandmother Nana Cecilia Garcia, mother

I still can feel her warm embrace
And yet picture her loving face A Mother's work is never done and Heaven must of needed one for angels' came and took her hand and led her to GOD'S promised land She's surely kept quite busy there brushing little Angela's hair Although there's sadness, this I know She's waiting there, her face aglow I close my eyes and I can see her arms still open wide for me

My Mother
My mother is a woman like no other. She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly loved me unconditionally.
There are not enough words I can say to describe just how important my mother was to me, and what a powerful influence she continues to be.
Mother: I Love You.

“ The incredible loss I feel, is overwhelming. Words cannot describe what you meant to me. I spent more of my life with you than I have anyone else. I'm gonna miss you all the days of my life. The laughs we shared and the cries. The long three hour conversations we had. Thanksgiving dinners and Christmas gatherings. You have always been the one true constant in my life. I know I will see you again and I just can't wait to get there. When we can laugh and share together our true home in Heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I love you little sister!
