On June 15, 2010, Angelina Natalia Baeza was born to Fidel Baeza III, and Janell Villareal in Carlsbad, New Mexico. She was going into her freshman year at Lake Arthur High School. Angelina was a very special girl, she was funny, outgoing, loving, kind and all around a social butterfly. She loved her family, friends, and everyone she came in contact with. Angelina touched so many people's lives that her absence will be dearly missed.

Angelina attended One Eighty at Church on the Move. She loved God and enjoyed going to church. She loved hanging out with friends and family and babysitting for family when needed. She loved babies and babies loved her. She enjoyed them hanging on to her and when they followed her all around the house. She enjoyed playing volleyball, basketball, being on her cheer team and running track. Her favorite sports team was the Denver Broncos. She also enjoyed hanging out with friends, going to the movies and making videos. She also liked doing her makeup, nails and putting on lashes.

Angelina will be missed by her friends and family.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Angelina are her parents: Fidel Thomas Baeza III, Janell Jane Villareal and Sandra Rubio; grandparents: Fidel Tommy and Patricia Baeza, and Tomas and Merced Rubio; siblings: Roman Lopez, Isaiah Villareal, Fidel Thomas Baeza IV, Joyce Franco, Jimmy Franco, Annajita Rubio, Ariana Lujan, Annalyse Lujan, Miguel Ceballos and Adam Madrid; aunts and uncles: Angela and Angelo Madrid, Marcelo Baeza and Arturo Baeza; nephew, Kaleb Lopez; and numerous other aunts, uncles, and cousins who loved her dearly.
