“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Anthony's family at this difficult time. I know there are no words to take away the pain of your loss, but I hope you know what a kind, respectful and amazing person Anthony is/was/forever will be. I am grateful to have had the chance to get to know Anthony. He was one of the first people to call and check on me and my family after my nephew Steven's accident. I was extremely saddened by the news of his passing. I know how heartbreaking this must be for his family and friends. I pray you all find some peace in the memories and in knowing he will always be with you. Have faith that you will see him again someday. Be at peace sweet Anthony. You will be missed.
