

Arthur "Art" Raymond Alirez

July 4, 1988 - May 9, 2017

Loving son, brother and father, Arthur Raymond Alirez, 28, passed away on May 9, 2017. Viewing will be Tuesday, May 16, 2017, 7:00 – 9:00 PM at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory. Graveside Service will be May 17, 2017, 11:00 AM in Corona, NM. A tribute of Arthur's life may be found at www.andersonbethany.com where you may leave memories and expressions of sympathy for his family.

Arthur was born on July 4, 1988 in Fort Stewart, Georgia, to Pablo Alirez and Elizabeth Marie Montoya Alirez. Enjoying making everyone laugh, Arthur had two nicknames, 'Artiebrown' and 'Artoodles.' He loved to spend time with family and friends. Arthur's smile could light up a room. His life was lived through music and multiple adventures around the world. Arthur was a great defender of his entire family. He loved his father, Pablo and his stepmother, Laticia. Arthur's huge, lovable and kind heart was a treasure to his entire family.

Those surviving to cherish Arthur's memory are four children: Christen, Nathanael, Angel and Ariana; father and stepmother: Pablo and Laticia Alirez; brother and sister: Isaac and Angelica; grandparents: Pablo and Carmen Romero; great-grand parents: Victor and Miranda Montoya; numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Preceding Arthur in death were his mother, Elizabeth Marie Montoya and a brother, Nathan.

Arthur will be forever loved and missed. May he rest in peace with the other guardian angels in the sky.

“ Art was my love and the light of my life. I remember the day we meet. I was so nervous and you assured me no matter what you loved me. I will always remember our special moments and forever cherish them. From your silly dance moves you would do just to make me smile to falling asleep in your arms. I love you Art and I miss you tremendously. ONE LOVE <3
