“ My condolences go out to the Harris family. We go back a long way, partied a little bit together, and had nothing but respect for each other. I know that it's hard losing siblings having lost two a little over a year ago, and it's hard to realize that they are no longer with us. But, we keep them in our heart and relish the memories we have of them. Times have changed but please keep your head up and keep on truckin. I'm sure Arthur wouldn't have it any other way. God Bless You All!
