“ *His family called him Papo and I had the privilege of getting to know him and take care of him from time to time. I never called him Papo because I always called him PapPaw and he knew I was the only one who called him that and he knew it and loved it. I will miss him and miss him telling me his stories about his time in the Army. From one Army Dog to Another Army Dog I will miss you & love you PapPaw. Thanks for the Great friendship.

“ Fly High Brother Augustine I know you are rejoicing in the presence of our Lord. I can still hear you singing this song.

//Como Jeremías oraba y lloraba

Así quiero yo orar y llorar//,

//Dios le contestaba la petición que hacía

Así quiero yo que contestes la mía.

I pray for the family that you may feel the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ.
