“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. It is evident that she was a good and kind person, loved and appreciated by many. I recently lost someone close to me and can appreciate the heartache words cannot describe. With that in mind, I am moved to share with you a thought that helped me through the pain. That is the words of Jesus himself in the book of John, chapter 5 and verse 28, 29. He said 'Do not be amazed at this. For the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice, and come out.' I was so relieved to know the bible talks about an earthly resurrection; a time of peace when we will see our loved ones again in perfect conditions according to God's own will. I encourage you to hold on to that hope and learn more. It is my sincere wish that learning of this will give you the comfort it gave me.

“ I remember Eva being nearly tireless working for education, or for the Democratic party.
I know she was strongly committed to improving life for all.
She will be missed.

Yes she did and was always a go getter if she saw something to be fixed she would get it done.

“ Eva was an amazing woman! She was such a strong advocate for public education, for reading, for kids and employees! I met Eva many years ago through NEA-NM and she always reminded us to keep the needs of our Education Support Professionals in mind. She was so excited when some of her grandkids were featured in the NEA-NM Read Across America poster! That brought together many of her passions. She will be missed.

“Michelle, Ruthie, and Evette,
My prayers and my deepest sympathy are with all of you and your families in your loss. I have known the three of you since you were small. Your mom and I worked together starting in 1977. She was the librarian at that time and a very good one.

Your Mom was very smart, a little stubborn, full of energy, laughable, and always gave 110%. She enjoyed her different positions throughout her working career and worked very hard to make everyday the best it could be.

She did awesome work with the support personnel and teachers because she loved "the fight" for what she believed would improve their positions and their rights through NEA. She also loved going to the conferences to learn what she could do to continue her support.

I will miss my friend, her laughing ways, and her smile!

“ You have my deepest sympathy over the passing of Avarista (Eva). I met her through NEA-New Mexico. Eva was always so full of positive energy. She was always so cheerful and I'll always miss her phone calls. She'd call and say, "Hello, pretty lady!" She had a beautiful spirit and was so firm and active in her advocacy for her fellow NEA-NM members and I was blessed to know her--Elizabeth Martinez
