God saw Bea was getting tired And a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around Bea And whispered, "Come with Me." With tearful eyes we watched Bea suffer And saw Bea fade away. Although we loved Bea dearly, We could not make Bea stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

“ My sympathy and deepest condolences are with each of the family. May God be with you at this hard time. Bea was a good friend I work with her at Levis and she the one I took my first taxi cab ride with . she use to pick me up to go work and one day she show up in the taxi. when she told me to hurry cause the taxi was out side I didn't belive it . I look out side and didn't know what to do. as we left to work me and Bea were in the back and I laugh all the way from 2nd. street to levis at the base cause all I could see was the driver in the front. Bea would tell me not to laugh. But couldn't help myself. when we got to work I told the cab to drop us off two blocks away so that no one would see us . He took us right to the front door. Something I will never for get. So as you can see she will live with in me forever. she was so kind she even pay the cab and wouldn't take my money. May the lord Bless her. virgie Romero
