“ Oh Wow, I can't believe this! Mr. Ben was my supervisor back in the AAR days in Teardown. We shared a trailer for our offices and let me tell you it wasn't always peaches and cream. That middle door got slammed quite a bit depending on which one of us didn't want to hear the other Btch (can I say that here)?, lol. We were both stubborn, we went almost 2 weeks without talking at one time. He finally came in my side of the trailer with Guacamole & Chips from Burrito Express and threw them on my desk without saying a word. I said, "Does this mean we can be friends again?" Lol. We butted heads often but we were also the best of friends. He was always supportive and helped get through quite a bit of tough times. He had me babysit his house and his cat Fred when he went off to see his Ms. Lyn and I don't even like cats. I have a lot of memories of good ole Mr. Ben from his pranks he played on me at work, to playing pool at his house, cooking up Posole at his house, his stories, his laughter. Although it's been a while since I've seen him (being receptionist) I will always remember what a good man he was, with a very good heart. I have many shot glasses he brought me from Philippines and other places. May God comfort you Ms Lyn, Edward (always spoke highly of you) and each of you family members. May you rest in peace Mr. Ben, you ole grouch, boy would his face get red when mad. Good man, sorry for his loss to all who knew & loved him.

“ I loved Ben like a brother. We have shared in all the chapters of our lives. From joining him at Louse Durham Elementary for his Christmas party to traveling to Acapulco together when I was 10 and he was 8. . . Waking up Christmas morning at Mom and Pop's house and having fun with each other's presents . . . Seeing Ben first upon arriving to Mena for the summer and all the happiness of that moment . . . Watching cousin Ben eating all the pistachios in front of me, exclaiming, "They're mine!" . . . Enjoying him moving to Artesian NM to work for Haliburton where I started my teaching career and filling my glass of coke with Wild Turkey, exclaiming with laughter (on my 26th birthday), "I've waited 24 years to do this!" . . . To showing up at my home with an 18 wheeler for his new trucking career . . . Excitedly hearing that he moved to Roswell NM (just up the road) to disassemble jet airplanes where we would spend an afternoon having dinner together or go hunting rabbits in the mountains outside Carlsbad . . . To being there for him when his father (my beloved Uncle Ben) passed away . . . Working together in our dental company for 2 years . . . Getting a hundred calls from Ben that always began with, "What're you doin?" We were the first two grandchildren and Ben and I shared the same unique bond and precious memories with our Mom and Pop (grandparents) and would always "go back" and relive those moments when we got together. Before we concluded our telephone conversations Ben always said "I love you Jay." Oh My God, I don't know what I'm going to do without him. I miss him so much.
