“ His son Robert was my best friend growing up. I was always at their home. Maureen and Benny recognized my home severely broken and later moved me in with them as part of their family. A bit gruff at times but that was just his type of humor.

“ I met Benny in 1965 when he went to work for Barbee WSCO. I liked to rib him about me teaching him how to drive a truck. He always said I was "full of it" and already knew how. He was with the company for 30 years before I put him out to pasture. He was a good and faithful employee and a good friend to me during his employment and after retirement. My wife and I had several dinners with Melva and Benny when we visited Roswell. I will always love him and will miss him dearly. Goodby my friend. John and Loryn Barbee.
