“ My Father, My Friend, I love you and i know now that you are wrapped in the arms that you longed for. I miss you dad! There has not been a day that passes by that i do not think of you. Tell mom i love and miss her too! I hope that one day soon we will be back together again. I think of all the funny things that we did and how you would come home and i was so happy to see you when you were away working. All the things you did for us i will never forget. I am Glad that i had the chance to take care of you dad. I know that you are in a better place but life without you is still hard to get over. I miss you and mom very much, I love you and you both will always be in My heart until we meet again.. your daughter . Eslinda Lopez

“ If tears could build a stairway And heartach make a lane,I'd walk the path to heaven.And bring you back again.God saw you getting tired.And a cure was not to be. So He put arms around you, and whispered "Come with me" With tearful eyes.We watched you suffer. And saw you fade away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating. Hard working hands at rest.God broke our hearts to prove,he only takes the best. Bring us oh Lord God,our last awakening,and into the house and gate;and dwell in that house where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling one equal light;no noise nor silence,but equal music;no fears nor hopes,but one equal eternity; in the habitation of thy and domimiom,world without end."Amen" /// I know how you must feel now.But I will always put the family in Gods hands,so that He may comfort you in this time of need.I only wish I could be there.He will always be missed by me,as I remember alot about a friend I had in him.God Bless all of you and may God hear your prayers./// Annie
