“ This probably won't be published since so much time has passed....and even if it is I am pretty sure you will never see it. However....it's unreal how much I have thought about you this last week. Which is how and why I found out about your mom. I have thought about you non stop everyday for a little over a week and especially the last few days. Which is why I tried to find you...and came across the funeral announcement- the first I heard about it. Troy, I am so sorry...I wish I had known then, and though I realize it has been some time ago, I still send you my thoughts and prayers. Austin Rei Gameson

“ My dear Troy, My heart aches at the loss of mom. She became such a part of my life these past months. The laughter, secret woman to woman talks and love she gave me will be cherished always. She is always with us as loving memories never fade. She is now side by side with her soulmate. They are looking down upon us and blessing us with their love. Always hold tight to that love for it is meant to be shared through the years to come. I love you today, tomorrow and always. Julie

“ My earliest memory of Beverly was as a small boy growing up near Lava Hot Springs, ID and she a tall beautiful teenager with long hair living with our grandparents. I am especially grateful for the time I was able to visit with her at Shirley's service in Pocatello last year and the letters and phone calls we shared. Her kind comments about our grandparents have been very meaningful. My sincere condolences go to her children and their families.
