

Billy Jo Williams

December 15, 1928 - June 21, 2018

Thursday, June 21, 2018, Billy Jo Williams, born December 15, 1928 to George and Annie Brooks, went to her heavenly home and into the waiting arms of her husband, Edward Lee Williams, Sr. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, "Nana" to many, and friend to all.

Billy Jo was a loving mother to her two sons, Edward Lee Williams, Jr and wife Andrea, of Las Cruces, Jack Williams and wife Debbie, of Roswell, and a daughter-in-law, Betty Dyess Williams. She was an amazing grandmother to, Michelle Stone, Edward Lee Williams, III and Page, Christie Campbell and husband Justin, Jimmie Williams and wife Melissa, Melissa Brackeen, Kristen Island, and Marty Brackeen. While her kids and grandkids meant the world to her, no one was as precious to her as her little darlins, her great-grandchildren; Kayla Salas, Ryan Williams, Hannah Chandler, Jared Stone, Matthew Chandler, Madison Stone, Cooper Campbell, Jace Williams, Caitlin Campbell and Jackson Williams. She is also survived by her sisters, Jerry Buckland and Glenda Carol Adams, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Billy Jo was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and her sisters, Dean Shellhammer, Gertrude Barley, Lucille Middleton, and LaVerne Fritzmeier.

Per her wishes, there was a private service for her children and grandchildren at the family home.

Billy's tribute was beautifully written in her honor by her family.

Tribute Wall

“ Billy Jo Williams

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ To my little grandma. When we reached your height we thought we were as big as big could be. Only when we grew up we figured out that we would never be as big as you with as much love as you had for all of us. Your in the arms of papa again making sure everything will be ready for us when we see you again. Love you , Bub.

Lee Williams - June 23, 2018 at 12:29 PM