Brandon, I will always love you as one of my own, you are eternal in my heart. You were a big part of my life as well as the lives of my 3 children for many years. Good times, hard days, tears and laughter, frowns and smiles, the horseshoe, my truck, your beautiful smile, so many years connected each one of us. You will always be my best friend and will always be special to me, always... I LOVE YOU Brandon Donna

“ Dear Michelle and family, I am so sorry to read about your son, Brandon. It seems like only yesterday you would bring both boys to work with you. How time flies. Michelle, I love you and feel for your pain. Please cling to God's unchanging hand. He helps the broken hearted. God saw me through some bad times with Paul. Let me know if there is anything you need. Love Inez

“ This is such a shock. I don't even know where to start, Michele, to tell you how I feel. I can only imagine what you are going through. I want you to know that if I can do anything, please call me. Remember.. I was your coach when Brandon was born and we laughed through it all and had a good time bringing him into this world. It was such a wonderful day. I remember what a cute little kid he was and how ornery he could be. I especially loved the time he wanted to climb on the dresser and was told no or he would get a spanking, and then he brought ya'll the belt and said ok do it, because he thought he could climb the dresser since he would of already taken the punishment. I laughed till I cried. They always say that God never gives you more than you can take, but sometimes I know he sure does try, and this is one of those times. Be strong. They also say, and I am a firm believer, that everything happens for a reason. You are always, and now especially, in my thoughts and prayers.
