“Dad... I wish you peace in your next venture. I am so thankful for everything you have taught me, especially how to make jokes and be happy even during the most challenging stressful and depressing times. You have left a mark on this earth for many, and everyone who met you saw how special and gifted you were. Thank you for everything that you did for me, for being a great father, grandfather, and lots of times my best friend. I know I was too hard on you, and I would give it all away to just spend one day with you making jokes together. I'm blessed that I was able to learn from your teachings and I hope I make you proud. Rest in peace you, I'll see you in my dreams. Love you Dad
