“ I didn't realize she had passed away had thought about her the other day was going to look her up and saw this. She was always nice and friendly. I hadn't seen her since my 21st birthday 10 years ago. But she was always someone I remember fondly

“ Brittney was on my mind a lot lately. I haven't used social media very much so I decided to try and catch up with her somehow, unfortunately I ended up here. I'm sorry Britt. I miss you, it's your old bestie Cam. I hope your resting peacefully. To her family I'm so sorry, I can't imagine the pain you all feel. Praying for all of you.

“ Brittney, you will be forever in our hearts. The Lord took you home and I pray you are safe in His arms looking down on your children and our family, knowing we will cherish your memory. We love you and will pray for Uncle Russell, Aunt Rose, and your beautiful children. Uncle Russell and Aunt Rose, words cannot express how deep this loss is and the sorrow and grief I know you are feeling, but please keep God close. He is capable to carry this burden. I'm sorry I cannot be there during this time, but know you are in my heart. I love you all so very much. Love, Sabrina & Family

“ Brittney was my best friend when we were kids. We lost touch a long time ago but I never forgot about her. I actually found this picture a few months back and thought I'd share it with you. It breaks my heart to hear this and I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying for your family and for her kiddos.
