“ BrookLynn had so much joy in her ! I loved how she would run up and greet me with a big hug and big smile...even though we didn't see each other frequently!!! She knew what life was about - loving others and enjoying God's creation-- being full of joy with the simple but most important things in life.

“ BrookLynn loved so deeply. A precious child of God, she will always be remembered for the joy she brought to Dexter Elementary, especially by her classmates and her teachers. I was on playground duty when she came to tell me a boy had pushed her down and the heel of her hand was hurting. I checked out the injury as she shook it off. The little boy came to check on her and I asked him if he was mad a BrookLynn. He said it was an accident and he wasn't mad. I said do you feel bad that BrookLynn is hurt? He said yes, I'm sorry BrookLynn. She said I'm okay let's go play. They put their arms around each other's shoulder and ran off to play. She had mercy, forgiveness and grace. Such a sweetheart.
