“Where to begin....my Tio Carlos is one of the strongest men I know, if not the strongest. The stuff this man endured in his lifetime is nothing short of amazing and a testament to the type of human being he was. This man loved with everything he had and was one of the most giving people, always taking care of those around him. I have so many fond memories of visiting him and my Tia in Carlsbad, even later in life as an adult, I have many fond memories of him. Several years ago, I was going to be in town for my high school reunion. He heard about it and he insisted I stay with him and wouldn't take no for answer. So I stayed with him. we had such a great time, just chatting and talking about life. I remember us arguing because he wanted to cook me breakfast and I wanted to cook him breakfast but again, he was not having it and insisted he make us breakfast. Let's just say I lost that argument. I love you so much and you will forever be missed by so many but your memory will live on.

“ I remember going to Carlsbad with my mom to visit my Tio Carlos and family. We would always have a good time fishing, grilling, and listening to music. One time really sticks out to me... it was the time me and my cousin Jeff got caught in the mud and my cousin Jeff was sinking in knees deep. My sister Ruby had to go and save him from the mud. It was hilarious, ask my sister Ruby about it lol. That just 1 story of many that we had with my Tio Carlos and family.

“ My tio was the sweetest man he meant more to me than anything. He would always come and give me a hug when he would do his walks around Home Depot when I still worked there. I will always love and appreciate my tio Carlos and I bawled my eyes out when I found out he was gone.

“ My Tio Carlos was more than just my Tio he was more like a father to me. I was honored to have him walk me down the aisle since my dad Cyl passed away a long time ago. My Tio was honored to do it because he loved his brother So much. He was proud to take his big brothers place. Even though the marriage didn't work my Tio stepped in and made my day special for me. I love you Tio Carlos and will always remember the love her had for all of us especially his grandkids I will miss you Tio. Forever In Our hearts. God bless Eddie and Lori and his grandkids. I

“ Sam's Thursday night dinner buddy. So glad that I went with Sam to visit you last week! We had such a wonderful visit. Gonna miss you our precious friend, but now you rest in peace with no more pain. Our sincerest condolences to the entire Cobos family, you lost one heck of a man who was loved by so many. We saw that with the visits he got from all of you, thank each and everyone of you for being there for him 🙏
