“ I would like to extend my deepest condolences to you and your family during this extremely difficult time. Although I never officially met little Carlos he has truly touched my life and reminded me to never stop telling my babies how much I love them. He knows you love him and I believe he in my heart that your precious child is now eternally happy and feels nothing but love. The Lord has called him home and now he can play all he wants. He was a blessing for the 13 months he was here and nobody who knew him will ever forget him. Thank God for all that you have and trust Him and remember that earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. We live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. Bible, 2 Corinthians 4:16-15:8
God Bless You and Your Family

“ A Walk to Remember I walk to remember the steps you'll never take. I carry you with me as I firmly plant my feet. Our trek started long ago, before my belly swelled. You were a love that grew- like butterfly wings that beat. Your gently flutters then became kicks upon which I would dwell. And I would talk to you, sweet babe, about the world you soon would meet.

The sun always shone upon us then- when you were in my womb. And I was eager to show you the world that would have been your home. How you'd have loved the sun shining- blue skies without a cloud. The autumn leaves turning- the snow falling all around. The flowers in summer- would have filled your eyes with smiles. And the rain that might have fallen would have caused you great surprise. You would have traveled far with me- holding me by the hand, And I'd have shown you all I could- more that I can imagine.

You hold my HEART tightly now, as though we're holding hands. How far we've traveled, little one- and my life with you has been sweet. For I carry you in my heart, as I firmly plant my feet.
