“ My heart goes out to all Carols's family members and friends, its hard to lose someone like Carlos, he was sweet, lovable, stubborn, determined and a wonderful friend. I had an opportunity to know him since he was small. He used to make me laugh, even while he was locked up he never gave up his humor. He would pull me aside and ask for advise or discuss with me what he wanted in life and no matter what was going on in his life he always had a smile for me. Losing someone so young and vibrant is the hardest thing anyone has to go through, be strong, his pain is over and ours is just beginning, I'll never forget him and he will always be alive in my memory as he will be in yours. I will pray for God to give us the strength and understanding to carry on without him. He is now up there in the arms of all those who went before him, including my son and I know that Samm has his back.

“ Ryan and I are so sorry for the sadness that losing Carlos has brought to your lives. You may not remember us, but we lived a half block from you all when Carlos was little. He was at our house alot and spent many hours playing with our kids. We loved having him around! We were saddened to see his obituary this evening. Please know we are thinking of you all right now. I am so sorry. The Jackson's
