

Carolyn Sue Self

March 25, 1945 - February 17, 2017

Carolyn Sue Self, age 71 of Roswell, NM passed away on Friday evening, February 17, 2017, at her home surrounded by her family. Born in Artesia, NM to Ed and Lona Shipley on March 25, 1945. Carolyn is survived by 4 children. Debbie Erwin of Amarillo, TX. Tommy & Candy Burnes of Dexter, NM. Lester & Marie Burnes of Roswell, NM and Liz & Danny Rochelle of Dexter, NM. Her passion in life were her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. If you called her Granny you were one of hers. We can't name just one grandchild because there were so many and they were all special to her.

Carolyn started her life out early when she married Oliver Kent. She then married our dad, Monroe Burnes, who she spent more than 25 years of marriage with. Her last love was Wayne Self, whom she was preceded in death by.

Carolyn spent her life doing many jobs, from waitressing, driving a silage truck to working in the field counting bugs. She retired in Midway at the Midway Trading Post and Midway Style Shop before moving to Roswell.

Her high point in her life was when she was a CASA Volunteer. She was a voice for many kids. She enjoyed fishing, hunting, camping and of course the Casino.

A special thanks to the Gentiva Hospice Family.

Graveside service will be on Thursday, February 23, 2017, 10:00am at South Park Cemetery.

The family request that any donation be made to CASA of Roswell.

Pastor Tim Arlet of Gentiva Hospice Family will officiate.

Obituary was lovingly written by Carolyn's family.

“ To the family of Carolyn:
We were sad to hear about Carolyn. We have known her for a long time. She cut all of our hair in the Midway shop. She was a loving and wonderful woman. She always went out of her way to see us and help. Her help with my Mom (Sue) was greatly appreciated. She will be missed. You all are in our Prayers.
