“ Carriebelle's lovely shop, with all the wonderful fabrics and the latest styles from Vogue, introduced young ladies to "formals" in styles and fabrics unavailable in the retail shops of the times. Whether going to Rainbow, to a prom, or NMMI Final Ball, the gowns were likely made of fabrics from Carriebelle's. And how many brides did she provide the patterns, embellishment ideas, and fabrics for?

How many treasured pictures of a sister, a wife, a mother, an aunt or friend show her wearing a lovely formal or gown created out of bolts of fabric that lined the colorful walls at Carriebelle's?

Carriebelle touched many lives through helping create the fashion of the times, from doll clothes to the formals and gowns. The dresses created from Carriebelle's are such fond memories. These moments live in countless albums. Thank you, dear Carriebelle.

“ Carriebelle was a true friend to me for a number of years. After I left Roswell we stayed in touch by phone and occasional visits for several years. I will miss her. Ramon, thank you.

“ Carribelle is one of those people who are born to delight. As a newcomer to Roswell, I spent hours talking to her in the store about her memories of the way Roswell used to be. She was a lovely person.

“ Carrie Belle was a friend and mentor to me as a young bride in the very beginning of the establishment of her business. My mother purchased the fabric for my wedding dress at Carrie Belle's shortly after she opened for business. Carrie Belle shared her skill and knowledge as a seamstress with me and helped me develop my sense of style. For many years, I enjoyed dropping in for a visit even if I had no need to make a purchase. It was painful to me, as it was to many others, I'm sure, to observe her decline in physical and mental health. Carrie Belle was generous to me in her advice, counsel and gifts. I've missed her friendship for the past few years and praise God that she is at eternal rest.

“ Carrie Belle was my first boss. I will always appreciate her giving me the opportunity to work as a high school student. She helped instill in me a strong work ethic. She called me the day after I gave birth to my son in Arizona 25 years ago. I will always treasure the memories of her fondly. My condolences to her family.

“ Carriebelle was a sweet lady. She was in Mission Arch with my Mom, Margaret Crotzer. I was honored to be able to sit and share a meal in the dining room with Carribelle and my Mom one evening. God Bless her soul. Heaven has another angel to watch over us all.
