MOM

God knew what he was doing when he gave us a mother & grandmother like you, you were one of a kind a rare jewel. To the world you were one person, to all of us you were the world. Content in your home and always there unless you were at the casino.

I knew the day would come that you would no longer be with us, that you would be joining Dad and the rest of the family. You're deeply missed so much. I am sure they were at heaven's gate waiting for your arrival with love, joy & happiness. Their arms spread wide like the wings of an angel. I just did not think it would be this soon. Our hearts are breaking, the queen of the castle is gone. You have left us with beautiful memories. You will forever live on the inside of us and around us. As your journey continues to guide us and lead us in life.

Thank you for always unconditionally loving us.

Gathering will be at

“ My condolences to all of Cecilia's family. She was married to my late cousin Efrain Sánchez. As a young child I remember her as a very loving kind lady. We would go to visit every once in a while and to a few children's birthday parties. Or they went to our house. All till we moved to California in 1969. God bless all of their children. Please honor her memory by forgiving, loving and supporting each other. Try keeping the family united. That is what your parents would want. Don't drift apart. Be proud of them because you were so privileged to have her as your mother. God bless you all.
