God saw he was getting tired, And a cure was not to be. Though he put his arm around him And whispered, come with me, With tearful eyes we watched him suffer And watched him fade away. Although we loved him dearly, We couldn't make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us. He only takes the best.

“ *Maria, Cecil, S'Lene and the Aguirre family, Nancy and I are very sadden to hear of Cecilio's passing. I fondly recall visiting with the "chef" while picking up the best Mexican food in the Southwest. The teachers of GHS always enjoyed the fine food he prepared. I treasure Cecilio for his compassion for his fellow man and his ever present and contagious smile. He is missed and is remembered as an outstanding citizen of our city and nation. God bless you.
