Born in Presque Isle, Maine on February 9, 1953, Charles William "Bill" was the son of the late Charles Warren and Mary Hanagan Bristow. He was a graduate of Roswell High School. Prior to retirement, Bill worked as a car salesman and banker. He loved all sports, but his favorite ones were golf and his Denver Broncos. Bill loved to cook and was an avid book reader. He was also quite a character with an unlimited amount of useful and (sometimes) useless information. One of the greatest passions of Bill's life was being a member of the Elks Lodge. His proudest accomplishments were his daughters. He was a man with a huge and generous heart that would give the shirt off his back to help anyone in need. Bill will be greatly missed by his loved ones and those fortunate enough to have known him.

SURVIVORS: Bill leaves behind his loving daughters: Jessica Hughes and husband Michael, Shelly Ballinger; grandchildren: Memory White, Sydney Ballinger; siblings: Bob Bristow, Kelly Lehto and husband John, Kim Sutton-

Morr and husband Tim; aunt, Nancy Hanagan; niece, Mellissa Robertson; nephew, Nathaniel Bristow; and numerous cousins.

PRECEDED: Preceding Bill in death: his parents, Charles Warren and Mary Hanagan Bristow; and grandparents, William F. and Lucille Hanagan, Charles L. and Winnie Bristow; and sister: Patricia A. Bristow.

“ I knew Bill for 20 years. It seems as if I saw him only yesterday at Farmers and the Elks Lodge. He was beaming because of his kids and his grandchildren telling me stories. May you rest in peace, my friend.

“ The news of Bill's passing is a massive shock to me. I am heartbroken. Bill was one of my closest friends in high school. Since then, while my mother was still living in Roswell, I would call on him when I visited her. We usually managed to get together for a coffee or a beer. I have not been back since she died in 2006 and, sadly, I lost track of Bill. I was unaware of his health issues. My sincere condolences to his family.
