He married Kathy Mask on September 18, 1971 in Tucumcari, New Mexico. After graduation from NMMI, Charles proudly served our nation for 13 years reaching the Army rank of Sgt. E-7. He coached his sons and numerous others in baseball and life, and proudly assisted as his sons took over the role of coaches. He always enjoyed the small things in life spent with his family camping, fishing, and golfing. Charlie was a talented artist in paint, words, and pens. He always had a joke to make you smile and grin; poems to make you laugh or cry. Those left behind to cherish his memory are his wife of 39 years Kathy Frederick; two sons Lee Frederick and wife Rebecca, and Cory Frederick; two brothers William Frederick and wife Jimmie, and Frank "Corky" Frederick and wife Patti; a granddaughter Lena Marie Frederick; nieces and nephews: Roy, Robert, Virginia, Hayley, Abbey, and Jason; and Whit Hamill who was thought of as another son. “ Charlie Frederick was my baseball coach when I was 11 years old. In my 11 years playing baseball, Charlie was the best coach I ever had because he, not only taught me how to play baseball, he taught me about life. His heart of gold loved each and every child he coached like they were his own. For years after I moved on to play for other coaches, Charlie never stopped being my coach. He watched me play all the way through high school. I was always welcome in the Frederick home to spend the night with his sons or to go on fishing trips with the family. Each time I stopped by to see him, his face was always lit with a smile regardless of his condition. Charlie brought joy to everyone around him and always knew how to make you laugh. While Charlie is now departed from this world, I have not seen him for the last time. Because he one day accepted Christ as his personal Savior, I will see him again someday. Until then, I will always remember everything he taught me. I look forward to seeing you again Coach, thank you for the time you invested in me.

In Christ, Brandon
