“ Was sorry to hear of the passing of Juanita. She and my mother, Barbara Abbey, worked together for many years at St. Mary's and were good friends. I remember her as a funny and caring person and I always enjoyed visiting with her when I had the opportunity. I know Juanita and my mother are sharing cups of coffee and talking about the "good ol' days"

“ Pam, Sherry and Families, I will always remember Juanita's infectious laugh. She is with Bob and all our Grandma's and Grandpa's now laughing and playing poker just like old times. OH yeah and you can bet Juanita and Florida Mae have their red lipstick on and a cigarette hanging outta their mouth smiling down on us. Love you Cousins, Lynda Mathews
