"God called you today to come and rest.

You answered his call, you did your best.

We will cry and be sad, we will shed our tears.

We will also smile and reminisce about all the good memories through the years.

You were a good hearted soul and a loving wife and mother.

You had compassion for all those who were sick and suffering and needed a friend.

You will be missed always that will never end.

But we know you are at peace with your one true love.

Forever in heaven with the angels above.

We love you eternally and you will always be in our hearts and our thoughts endlessly."

“ Life is but a journey and how blessed were we to have Christina touch our lives. We grew up as neighbors with her hanging out with our oldest sisters, Miquela and Frances. She was a familiar face in our house and even as we all grew up, we still linked and considered each other neighbors and family.

You are loved Christine. Thank you for sharing your life with us. Thank you for the hugs and the smiles. For all the kind words. And for always saying hello.

I am happy you are healed... no longer in pain... and again resting your head in the arms of your beloved Frank, your mama, your daddy, and Arturo.

*she's in the air you breathe with every breath you take.
She sings a song
of hope and cheer,
there's no more pain,
no more fear.
You'll see her in
the clouds above,
hear her whisper*

“ Our deepest condolences go out to the Apodaca and Little families. It's really sad to hear about her passing. Chris grew up with us like family living next door & going to school with my sister, Helen. Although on the quiet side, she would always tell me "Hi" and was the nicest person that you could ever expect. She is in God's Hands now and rejoined with Mr. Frank. Rest in Peace Chris. God be with the family!
