“ Sweet Aunt Christine!

She always had a warm, genuine smile - not just for me, but for everyone. And when she did smile, it made the whole room light up.

Then there's her laugh! Oh, her laughter was definitely uplifting and contagious! At times, we couldn't resist joining in with her. This always brightened my day!

I'm thankful that her kind, loving spirit was passed on to her dear children. In seeing them, I still get a glimpse of her.

She was a jewel!

I will always remember Christine as a strong woman who loved her family. When I met her, she was around 45 and attending classes to become a certified nurse. She accomplished this, worked in the hospital and, later successfully, owned her own care taking business.

She loved God. She loved one man, B.O, who passed before her. She lived with dignity, quietly and was respected by all her family. She was the mother of my husband Paul, the grandmother of our daughters Pamari and Penni, and the greatgrandmother of our grandchildren Quentin, Bailey and Logan. We will miss her. Mary Vaughn
