

Christopher Mark Branscum

September 23, 1985 - March 4, 2015

Christopher “Chris” Mark Branscum, 29, of Moore, OK, passed away on March 4, 2015. Chris was born on September 23, 1985 in Longstughl, Germany to Carl Mark and Shawn Adair Branscum. On being transferred, the family moved to Ft. Hauchuka, Arizona, where they lived until 1993 when they moved to Oklahoma.

Chris attended Moore High School and later graduated from Guthrie Job Corps. He enlisted in the Army in November of 2006 and soon after basic training his brigade was transferred to Afghanistan where he served for a year. Afterwards, he transferred back to Ft. Hood for the remainder of his service in the military. Chris was honorably discharged in March of 2010.

Those surviving to cherish Chris’ memory are his father, Carl Mark Branscum and wife Hilary; mother, Shawn Adair Park and husband Denver; and step father, Scott Marshall. Also surviving him are siblings, Stephen Gilbert Branscum, Amber Adair Branscum, Mykael Shawn Marshall, and Tashina Wolfe. Chris leaves one four-year-old son, Matthew Scott, to carry on his legacy. His Great-Grandma, Gertrude Verberg and Grandparents: Beverly Carr, Wally and Grace Grove, and Ralph and Jane Marshall are also his survivors as well as numerous uncles and aunts.

The family will have a private service.
