"Perhaps you aren't ready yet to have to say good-bye...

Perhaps you've thought of things you wish you'd said...well so have I.

For one thing, I'd have told you, not to worry about me...

I'm with the Lord in Heaven now; you knew that's where I'd be.

I'm sorry that you're feeling sad, for I'm so happy now,

But I've asked the Lord to ease your hurt and comfort you somehow.

It's hard at the beginning, but I know you'll make it through,

I hope it helps to know, that I'll be there waiting for you."

Obituary was lovingly written by Chris' family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss! I worked side by side with Chris at Albertsons and we had a lot of laughs. He loved his parents so very much and was always talking about them. I am so shocked and saddened by his passing. I talked to him just days prior and hugged him and he said he was doing well. You will be missed Chris! Your friend Misty Palmer
