

Clarence Ruben Pearce

November 26, 1950 - February 21, 2016

Clarence Ruben Pearce, 65, passed away February 21, 2016. He was born November 26, 1950, to Louis Pearce and Catherine Bond in Marlow, Ok.

Clarence served his country in the National Guard. For 20 years, he was a truck driver. Being a workaholic, Clarence found time to serve God through his strong Baptist Faith.

Preceding Clarence in death are his wife, Jean Pearce; parents, Louis Pearce and Catherine Bond; one brother, Tommy Pearce; three sisters: Betty Jean Pearce, Susie Coleman and Kathy Holder.

Those left to honor his memory are two daughters: Jeanne Rue and husband Alex and Michelle all of Texas; stepdaughter, Laronna; and one brother, Louis Pearce and wife, Shirley of Roswell NM. Additionally, surviving Clarence are six grandchildren. At the family's request, no services are scheduled.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence Ruben Pearce

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ Ruben was my brother in law. I was married to his sister Susie. Ruben was a nice fellow and always was in good spirits. I miss him and my wife Susie Pearce Coleman who passed away of cancer in 2005. My mother passed away in 2004. Those 2 years tore me apart. David Coleman Marshall Texas. Text me if anyone can talk to me about Ruben and Susie 903-742-2025

David Coleman - September 04, 2022 at 02:27 AM

“ *I was trying to find some my "old friends" and almost family member on face book. I found this instead. I am so sorry. If would have known, I would have been there. I am sorry about all of your siblings passing away. I love you and think of you often. Carl and I live in Hobbs, NM. My email is JeanShir@aol.com. Again, our love and prayers go with you every day.
Carl and Shirley Kilgore Hensley
Hobbs, NM*

Shirley Kilgore Hensley - July 06, 2016 at 07:40 PM