Obituary for Cory Tarleton

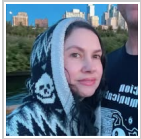

Cory Tarleton was born in Amarillo, Texas April 3, 1982. Tragically he has left this world at the age of 27. He passed in his sleep on October 14, 2009. Cory was a talented athlete, musician, beloved friend, family member, and good person. He will be missed by all his friends. His memory is cherished by, his loving mother Jan Tarleton, his kind father Mike Tarleton, his caring sister Jessica Tarleton, and his grandmother Ann Tarleton along with numerous cousins, uncles and aunts. Cory will always be remembered as a great soccer player, a guitarist, a lover of music and a fierce poker player. Cory was a loyal friend and a defender of those for whom he loved. He had a smile that made his entire face light up. He was extremely intelligent and had a great sense of humor. His memory will live in each of our hearts. Please share your thoughts and memories with the family in the online register book at andersonbethany.com Cremation was under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Mike and Jan...not sure if you remember me, but I was good friends with Corey in high school. I found out through a mutual friend about his passing. My sincerest condolences...Corey was a truly amazing person, and I'm sad I lost touch with him after your move from Huntsville. My thoughts and prayers go out to your entire family. Thank you both for being such great parents and loving people to me each and every time I was in your home...it meant the world to me. Take care...

“ Dear Jan and Mike,
Please accept my very heartfelt sorrow for the loss of your beloved Cory. While I never new him, I know he was a very special person. My own son, Jeremy, passed away at the age of 28 and it is, for all of us, a true tragedy to suffer such a loss. My thoughts are with you.
Always, Becky
