Cristians' heart overflowed with compassion, dedicating his time and energy to doing anything he could to help those he loved. His favorite hobby was watching his #1 team the Dallas Cowboys play their seasons games. Fishing was his favorite getaway, even had a lucky spot at Lake Van where he could spend endless hours with Tio Mario. Going out to the river or any open area Cris enjoyed citing the scope on his riffles and shooting his gun's regularly with his brothers and close friends. Hanging out and chilling with Tio David was another pastime he loved.

Cristian dedicated his time to go above and beyond for his immediate family, but especially for his niece Dev. He was always doing anything he could to male their lives easier, better, or simply less stressful. The Gomez Club was always Cristians #1 choice to go dancing or just enjoy live music. He'd say because Sonia was the only person to provide the best service to anyone who went, but especially to him anytime he was there. Cristian had an enormous heart; he was known by all who crossed his path for his warmth and kindness. He was the person to call to call when you needed a lending hand, and he would answer you day or night. He was such a silly person that would make anyone laugh. He had a personality like no other person and was definitely one of a kind. Just a few minutes around him would make your day. Cristina was a respectful person with a good character that was looked up to by many.

He has reached his destination to be with the Lord, accompanied by his cousin Zion, best friend James, his Tio Mon, and good friend Sergio.

Cristian's passing was a profound shock to his family and friends. We are all the lucky ones, to have known and loved Cristian thru the years. He is deeply missed.

El corazón de Cristian rebosaba compasión y dedicaba su tiempo y energía a hacer todo lo posible para ayudar a sus seres queridos. Sus pasatiempos favoritos eran ver a su equipo número uno, los Dallas Cowboys, jugar los partidos de la temporada. La pesca era su escapada favorita, incluso tenía un lugar afortunado en la Lake Van donde podía pasar horas interminables con su tío Mario. Salir al río o cualquier área abierta, a Cris le gustaba citar la mira de sus rifles y disparar pistolas regularmente con sus hermanos y amigos cercanos. Pasar el rato y relajarse con el tío David era otro pasatiempo que le encantaba.

Cristian dedicó su tiempo a hacer todo lo posible por su familia inmediata pero especialmente su sobrina Dev. Siempre haciendo todo lo posible para hacerles la vida más fácil, mejor o simplemente menos estresante. Si había baile o simplemente querer disfrutar música en vivo, el Gomez Club siempre fue la opción número uno de Cristian. Decía que Sonia era la única persona que brindaba el mejor servicio a cualquiera que iba, pero especialmente a él cada vez que estaba allí.

Cristian tenía un corazón enorme, era conocido por todos los que se cruzaban en su camino por su calidez y amabilidad, la persona a quien llamar cuando necesitabas una mano, y Cristian era quien te respondía día o noche. Era una persona tan chistoso que haría reír a todos. Tenía una personalidad como ninguna otra persona, definitivamente única. Sólo unos minutos a su alrededor te alegrarían el día. Cristian era una persona respetuosa y de buen carácter, admirada por muchos.

Ha llegado a su destino para estar con el Señor, acompañado de su primo Zion, su mejor amigo James, su tío Mon y buen amigo Sergio.

El fallecimiento de Cristian fue un profundo shock para su familia y amigos. Todos somos afortunados de haber conocido y amado a Cristian a través de los años. Lo extrañamos profundamente.

“Cris was in my 5th grade class and he was always quieter than most students but he always was a caring and compassionate young man. He was quick to find some humor in most situations! As he left my classroom I had great hopes for him but sometimes life gets scary and we make difficult choices. Some good and some not so good. I had his cousins in classes and his sister was a great help during some of my difficult days. I pray for my friend and colleague Dora as you try to maneuver through this difficult time. Brianna and the rest of the family, hold on to the Lord! This is a test to draw you closer to him. He is with you, ask for his help by name. I love all of you and pray for peace in the days ahead.
