Cuahutémoc's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

On September 13, 1979, Cuahutémoc was born in Roswell, NM, to Ruben and Josie Bolaños. He grew up with an extended family that included his aunt and uncle Jose Luis and Isabel Bolaños, who he considered his second parents. Cuahutémoc graduated from Goddard High School in 1997 and continued to attend the University of New Mexico and Eastern New Mexico University.

Cuahutémoc worked many different jobs throughout the years, always focused on the care and service of others. He enjoyed sports, baseball being his favorite, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Cuahutémoc is survived by his parents, Ruben and Josie; brothers and sisters: Ruben, Arturo, Sonia, Freddy, Jesse, Lizett, Robert, Katherine, Violet, Grace, Susan, and Ashley along with their spouses and families. He is also survived by aunts Santos and husband Ismael Gutierrez & family, Antonia Madrid & family, the Avalos family of Las Cruces; primos hermanos: Antonio & Alejandro Bolaños and Lupe & Felipe Madrid; Familia Bolaños in Michoacán, México; and countless cousins, nieces and nephews who loved and adored him.

He had a special fraternity family of brothers in Omega Delta Phi and many other life-long friends, and co-workers. Cuahutémoc loved his family home of Michoacán, México, where he lived a dual citizenship and worked most recently on caring for and maintaining the family Avocado business/ranch. Cuahutémoc is preceded in death by his parents, Jose Luis and Isabel Bolaños; brother, Jose Luis (Joe) Bolaños; sister, Mary Madrid; and grandparents: Antonio and Anita Madrid and Antonio and Delfina Bolaños. A Rosary and Mass will be held at 11:00 A.M. at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church in Roswell, NM, on Saturday, January 30, 2021. Father Jaroslaw "Jarek" Nowacki of Assumption Catholic Church will be officiating. Cuahutémoc's tribute was written in his honor by his family.
