On August 30, 1967, Cynthia was born to Filimon Baca Sr. and Georgia Archuleta in Roswell, New Mexico. Cynthia was always a person that would help another. She made her home a home for others in need. Even the Whole Family at a time, in times like COVID. From babies, children, and grown-up adults call or ask for their grandma, Mom. To know the feeling of Cynthia covering you with a warm blanket while you slept. When you have nothing, you feel LOVE. Cynthia had love for caring for her cats, and a passion for yardwork. She enjoyed burning grass so it would grow back into something beautiful. She would help anyone with their yard and burn your grass too. She was lovingly referred to Bratso Bug by her family because she was a fire bug.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Cynthia are her spouse, Frank Ponce; children, Christopher Baca, Leanna Montoya, Gina Duran, and John Baca; grandchildren, Cataleya Montoya, Jordan Duran, and Aiden Duran; father, Filimon Baca Sr.; siblings, Bernie Baca, Anthony Baca, Regina Bennet, Vincent Baca, Loraine Baca and Mabel Baca; and many other loved ones.

Cynthia is preceded in death by her mother, Georgia Archuleta, and siblings, Filimon Baca Jr. and Trisha Baca.

The family of Cynthia wishes to extend sincere thanks to Anderson Bethany Funeral Home.

Cynthia's tribute was written in her honor by her family.
