“ I was a really good friend of Nikki and it broke my heart when he died a few years ago....my name is Jim McMullen and also live down the street in Midway...I was thinking recently about stopping and seeing how Sue and Denise were doing because I really liked them. I just found out Sue had passed and I am upset because she was a great person and feel bad that I didn't stop by and see her.. it still hurts that Nick is gone. I know she took it hard when Nick died. Hopefully they are both together now in a better place. God Bless their souls and also God Bless the family and friends. So sorry for their loss

“ I knew Sue to be a very strong, independent woman. Any time we had an opportunity to visit she encouraged me and made me feel important. I enjoyed my visits with my sister as I knew Sue would be participating in the conversation. She had a gift of gab. My 5 or 10 minute phone calls or visits would turn into 30 minutes or longer of friendly conversation. She had a way of making others comfortable in her presence. Going to miss hearing her kind words of encouragement.
