Daniel was born on September 20, 1950, in Encino, New Mexico. He grew up in Encino and Roswell, New Mexico before enlisting in the US Army during the Vietnam War. Daniel proudly served his country before returning home where he met the love of his life and was wed to Evangeline Sena on December 9, 1972. He was happily married to her until her passing on July 28, 2021.

“Dan” loved his family so much and spent countless hours talking to them via telephone. He enjoyed watching his beloved Denver Broncos play and had a collection of their memorabilia. His children and his grandchildren were truly his pride and joy as he loved to talk about their accomplishments. Dan loved to go to his grandchildren’s activities and games and was always the loudest in the crowd. Anyone who knows Danny is well aware of his loud antics and crazy dance moves, but more than that they know about his very big heart. He left a stamp on this world that will not soon be forgotten!
