I'm so sorry for your loss Melissa 🙏 Your a strong woman. You stood with until the end. You know me and Daniel had a love hate friendship all we did was talk shit! It feels like yesterday the last time I seen y'all at Texas Round house. His memory will always haut me every time I see the 49ers! Wow I can't believe it blows my mind! I love you all you are in my prayers!! Fly high Daniel 🙏❤️

“ When I first met Daniel as a teenager, I was just a kid working at Furr’s Cafeteria with my sister, having no clue our brother even existed. I’ll never forget the moment he walked in, asked for us, and dropped the bombshell that we were related. I was stunned, but honestly, I thought it was the coolest thing ever. Life eventually pulled us in different directions, but reconnecting years later was a blessing I don’t take for granted. We kept our bond alive through Snapchat, where he never missed a chance to remind me he was a die-hard 49ers fan—mostly just to mess with me since I’m a Cowboys fan. He was so consistent; every birthday and holiday, I’d see a message from him. I kept trying to get him and Melissa out to Brantley Lake, and he always promised he’d make it one day. It’s a heartbreaking reminder that we always assume we have more time, when in reality, our time here is so uncertain. I’m so thankful we found our way back to each other. Rest in peace, brother. You are so loved, and I know I’ll see you again one day. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayer Melissa.

“ I can hardly remember my beautiful cousin Melissa without Daniel by her side. He always was so joyful and welcoming of everyone. He always brought smiles and laughs to everyone he talked to. I will cherish our last conversation we had a few months ago at my mom's funeral. I know that his light will continue to live on inside your heart, my cousin. We will always be so grateful to have had Daniel as family. Sending our love and prayers. May God grace you with His Peace. Love you all so much.
