“ Daniel was a very special person to me, when we first met was at work in Elida, NM.....I tried to show him everything I knew about the work we were doing (windmills~~construction~ warehousing)...I tried to take him under my wing... he wanted to learn and I was willing to show him what I knew.....he then became a confidant a shoulder for me to lean on...he knew when I was upset and would always try to brighten my mood...he would listen to my troubles and always ALWAYS find a way to brighten me up and make me laugh....Daniel has so many of my secrets....I will miss him... and his smile and of course his jokes.... ...when we were at work he always had my back just like I had his.....I will miss you Daniel

“ I was so shocked to learn that Daniel had passed away. He was such a good friend to me (and Alethea and Oscar) in high school. The obituary was quite right, he did love to tease and joke around with people. He had a fantastic sense of humor. My heart and prayers are with his family as I know how devastating a loss like this can be, especially when it happens to someone so young.

“ Caminando en los pasos de nuestro Señor no es fácil. A veces nuestro camino se pone oscuro, pero su amor nos ilumina el camino y nos enseña los pasos que debemos tomar. Solo el sabe por que se lleva los que mas queremos, y nos deja sin parte de nuestras vidas. Pero en sus manos nos ponemos y en su amor encontramos la paz que mas necesitamos en estos momentos. Nadie te puede quitar el dolor, pero tu familia siempre estará a tu lado para apoyar y ayudar en lo que podemos. Que Dios los bendiga. ----- Walking in the path of our father is not always easy. Sometimes our path becomes dark, but his love will light the way and show us the steps we should follow. Only he knows why he takes the ones we love the most, and leaves us without a piece of our lives. But in his hands we place ourselves, and in his love we will find the pace which we need most in times like this.

No one can take away your pain, but your family will always be by your side to give strength and help any way we can. May God bless you.
